

The perfect place to say 'I do'

Without doubt one of Australia's finest and most luxurious private mansion retreats, Maitraya located in Albany Western Australia provides our special guests with the finest in wedding facilities.

It is the dream destination for those who are looking for an intimate and exotic setting in which to celebrate their special day.

Set on manicured grounds and surrounded by national forest and ocean, Maitraya provides a "storybook" setting for your wedding day.

Maitraya can accommodate a beautiful ceremony overlooking the Southern Ocean, on the beach, a marquee reception in the manicured grounds or under the stars in our stunning sky-lit atrium.

Perfect for both ceremony and reception, the luxurious Maitraya retreat is set over 6000sqm, and includes eight bedrooms, eleven bathrooms and sleeps up to sixteen guests in complete comfort. Plus, if you require additional accommodation, the self-sufficient two bedroom airstrip cottage sleeps four is also available.

We can tailor any formal request for packages regarding accommodation or wedding functions including providing you with a tailored wine and food menu (NO locked in food and alcohol contracts).

Only a short flight from Perth, Maitraya also boasts a fully sealed private airstrip and conveniently located helipad, making it the ideal and easy accessible destination for your wedding.
